Course Introduction

Jesus commanded his disciples, “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age.” (Matthew 28:19-20) The command of our Lord Jesus Christ is very clear; make disciples. Then he makes clear the process of making disciples: to go, to baptize (evangelize), and to teach them to observe all that he has commanded us. And then he encourages us with the promise to be with us in the task...even to the end of the age.

Paul, the apostle, in a letter to Timothy makes clear a principle that enables Jesus’ command to be fulfilled through all who know him...the principle of multiplication. “and what you have heard me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.” (2 Timothy 2:2)

One-to-One Discipleship Training was designed to encourage this principle of multiplication and to help you fulfill the command of our Lord to make disciples! Here are some practical steps:

- Study this material with a facilitator for your own understanding and spiritual growth.
- Take Evangelism and Discipleship 2 offered by BEE to learn how to use this material to make your own disciples.
- Think and pray about someone who can benefit from studying this course.

- Plan to meet with this person on a regular basis (at least once a week). Study and discuss each lesson together with the goal of good understanding and personal application.

The joys will be many as you help this person build a confident and mature relationship with Jesus and to enable this person to help others also.

DESCRIPTION OF THE COURSE

This course provides three systematic approaches to fulfill this command. Unit 1 is designed to help new believers or unbelievers understand who Jesus is or believe in him by introducing him to them. If you do not know who Jesus is, or if you are not sure of your salvation, study this unit carefully with your facilitator. We recommend you studying this unit even if you already accepted Jesus as your Savior and Lord. The more knowledge you have of the truth of the gospel the easier it will be to share this truth with unbelievers.

Unit 2 introduces the importance of a devotional Bible study or Quiet Time. A Christian cannot grow spiritually without interacting with the word of God. God's word is spiritual nourishment for the believer. Study this unit and make Quiet Time a part of your life. You will experience spiritual growth through reading, meditating, and applying the word of God in your daily Quiet Time. Unit 3 deals with topics essential to Christian living that will equip you in areas important for spiritual maturity.

Remember that the knowledge you learn from this course is not enough to change your life. Your daily trusting in Christ, your commitment, and your practice of that knowledge will help make the change (Hebrews 5:12-14). Whatever you learn start practicing immediately. It is our desire that you grow spiritually and bear fruit that you might produce a hundredfold as a disciple of Christ (Mark 4:1-9).

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. Explain who Jesus is, what he has done, and what he is doing now.
2. Know and believe that Jesus is your Savior and Lord.
3. Know how to interact daily with the word of God.
4. Understand the importance of the following areas to your spiritual growth and maturity in Christ: assurance of salvation, the attributes of God, the word of God, prayer, fellowship, evangelism, Spirit-filled life, temptation, obedience, and ministry.

LESSON ORGANIZATION

Each lesson is divided into the following parts: Title, Lesson Introduction, Lesson Outline, Lesson Objectives, Assignments, and Lesson Development. The title, introduction, outline, and objectives provide a preview of the lesson. The lesson assignments describe specific tasks within the lesson to help accomplish the objectives. Lesson Development provides comments and questions to move the student toward the objectives.

Please give careful attention to every part of the lessons. Read all comments and answer to all questions. These will fix your attention once more on the main points of the lesson. This procedure is designed to make your learning more effective and longer lasting.

Make special note of the charts and other illustrations. These illustrations will help you to identify with those who followed Jesus sharing in both the hardships and the joys of letting the tremendous truths of the gospel grip your heart. Also, you will find these illustrations useful in your preaching and teaching.

Student Instructions

In each lesson there are assignments to be fulfilled before you study the lesson with your facilitator in order to satisfactorily complete the lesson. The following gives a list of differing types of assignments with a general description:

Lesson preparation. The purpose of this assignment is to use your time with facilitator effectively as well as to make you understand the content of the lesson before you study it with your facilitator. You and your facilitator are committing valuable time for this training. It is our desire that both of you use this time most efficiently. The most important purpose of this training is not transferring the knowledge in this workbook. As Jesus spent his time with his disciples so that they could learn from his teaching and life, you need to spend quality time with your facilitator together through this workbook to grow as Jesus' disciple. When you prepare for the lesson by answering all the questions in the lesson, you are ready to spend more meaningful time with your facilitator beyond acquiring knowledge. You must look for the given passages to answer most questions. We recommend you writing down the passages you look for on a separate notebook. By doing so, not only will you prepare for the training as a student but also as a facilitator in the future.

Scripture memory. The purpose of this assignment is to build into your heart and mind Scriptures that will strengthen you in your daily walk with Jesus. In each lesson you will be asked to memorize verses of Scripture related to the content of the lesson. Choose a translation of the Bible you are reading consistently.

Take sermon notes from a worship service. The purpose of this assignment is to encourage you toward regular worship with other believers and attentiveness to the message given each week. As you attend a weekly worship service, bring paper and pen to write down what you learn from the sermon given by the pastor.

Daily Bible reading. The purpose of this assignment is to encourage in your life a habit of daily Bible reading. Starting with Unit III you are asked to read a certain number of chapters from the Bible each week.

Daily Quiet Time (QT). The purpose of this assignment is to help you develop a daily time alone with the Lord and his word. Unit II will give you practical helps to make this a meaningful source of daily strengthening in the Lord and your walk with him. A part of this assignment will be to record what you are learning in a Quiet Time notebook. You will need a separate notebook for this purpose.

Memorize the names of all the books of the Bible. The purpose of this assignment is to make you very familiar with the whole Bible and to more easily know where to find passages of Scripture.

2 • One-to-One Discipleship Training

One-to-One Discipleship Training was designed to encourage the principle of multiplication set forth by the Lord Jesus in Matthew 28:19-20 and the apostle Paul in 2 Timothy 2:2. As you begin this study with an open heart, we pray this training will indeed help you toward fulfilling the command of our Lord to make disciples!

Unit 1, Encounter, is designed to help spiritually young believers or unbelievers understand who Jesus is. We strongly recommend studying this part even if you are already a follower of Christ. This unit is foundational to everything else you will learn in this training. The more knowledge you have of the truth of the gospel the easier it will be to share this truth with non-believers.

- B. The Perfect God

LESSON OBJECTIVES

ASSIGNMENTS

- 1. Study this lesson by answering all questions.
 - 2. Memorize John 3:16.

When meeting people for the first time, we often learn their names and a brief introduction to their backgrounds. After more time is spent with these new people, a deeper relationship grows as we learn more about their thoughts and character. We are also able to learn about people through others who are close to them. Similarly we will learn about Jesus the more we seek to know him, spend time with him, and have fellowship with other believers.

Question 1: Before studying this course, who did you say Jesus was?

4 • One-to-One Discipleship Training

It is possible to have different perceptions about Jesus. Therefore to know what kind of person he was, we need to know his stories and to hear the opinions of those who were close to him. When Jesus introduced himself, he would say that the Scriptures bear witness about me (John 5:39). So let us open the Bible and study what Jesus himself said and those near him testified.

Objective 1: Understand two features of Jesus Christ

A. A Perfect Human

Question 2: What are Jesus' nationality, birthplace, and hometown?
Matthew 2:1, 23

Question 3: How would you describe Jesus' childhood? Luke 2:52

Question 4: How was Jesus perceived in the following Scriptures?

a) Matthew 4:2

b) John 4:6

c) Mark 4:38

d) John 11:35

Question 5: Record your thoughts as you meditate on how you feel about these aspects of Jesus.

B. The Perfect God

Read Hebrews 4:15 and answer the following two questions:

Question 6: How was Jesus similar to a common person?

Question 7: How was Jesus different from a common person?

Question 8: Based on these testimonials, some people call Jesus a saint, a founder of a religion, and/or a prophet. All of these views about Jesus are possible views. How did Jesus describe himself in John 10:30?

Jesus' claim to have equality with the Father created a variety of responses among the people. Some believed he was being blasphemous, still others thought he was being arrogant. This was not the only place where Jesus made this statement; he made this claim in other parts of the Bible stirring up the same reactions. Answer the following questions:

Question 9: In John 5:23 Jesus says he should be honored just as they honor the _____.

Question 10: In John 14:9 Jesus says whoever has seen him has seen the _____.

Question 11: What did the people who were with Jesus think of him?

a) Matthew 14:33

b) Matthew 27:54

c) John 20:28

Summarize their shared opinions about Jesus.

Objective 2: Describe who Jesus is in your own words

Question 12: Jesus asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" After listening to his disciples he asked, "But who do you say that I am?" Read the conversation between Jesus and his disciples that leads to Peter's good confession in Matthew 16:13-20. Record your thoughts on how you would respond if he asked this question of you today.

Question 13: Think back through this lesson. Write down what you learned that is new. Also, note what applications you can make to your life.

What Did Jesus Do?

LESSON OUTLINE	LESSON OBJECTIVES
A. His Work B. His Death	1. Explain what Jesus did when he was in the world 2. Describe the meaning of his death 3. Define sin in your own words 4. List the benefits that Jesus can bring to the world

ASSIGNMENTS

1. Study this lesson by answering all questions.
2. Memorize Romans 3:23.

When people introduce themselves, they often talk about their personal history and work experiences. This is because many people think that their work describes or defines them. When you want to know about someone, you want to know what he or she has done in the past and is doing in the present. Too often we settle for having little or vague knowledge of Jesus. However we will not have an accurate picture of who he is and the work that he has done and is doing if we do not seek to know him on a much deeper level.

8 • One-to-One Discipleship Training

Question 1: What prior knowledge did you have what Jesus did when he was in the world?

Jesus did not leave behind an autobiography or memoirs. Therefore to know about his achievements we have to refer to the records written by his disciples. Of course, they did not record all of Jesus' work (John 21:25). Most essential contents have been chronicled in the four Gospels. Now let us look at these records and study the works of Jesus.

A. His Work

Objective 1: Explain what Jesus did when he was in the world Question 2: Read Matthew 11:2-6. When John the Baptist asked if Jesus was the expected Messiah, how did Jesus describe his work?

v 5

Question 3: How did Matthew, one of Jesus' disciples, describe Jesus' work?
Matthew 4:23

Question 4: With what kind of people did Jesus spend most of his time?
Mark 2:15

Question 5: Record your responses to how you feel about the way Jesus spent his time. What aspect of his life impacts you the most?

B. His Death

Objective 2: Describe the meaning of his death

Objective 3: Define sin in your own words

Objective 4: List the benefits that Jesus can bring to the world

Question 6: Jesus lived a perfect, sinless life. Yet, what kind of death did he face? Mark 15:15, 25

Question 7: The death of Jesus was not different than the deaths of other political offenders. However not only Jesus himself but also his disciples said that his death had specific purposes. Summarize these purposes.

a) Mark 10:45

b) Romans 5:8

Question 8: The Bible says the reason that Jesus had to be executed on the cross was because of our sins. Define sin in your own words.

Question 9: According to the Bible, what are the origin and the consequence of sin? Romans 5:12; 3:23

Question 10: By his death on the cross and shedding of his blood, Jesus solved the human problem of sin (Ephesians 1:7). Do you think your sin is included in this solution?

Question 11: What other benefits did Jesus' blood on the cross render to the world?

a) Ephesians 2:13-14

b) Colossians 1:20

Question 12: The death of Jesus made it possible for all sin to be forgiven. This wonderful gift of salvation through the blood of Christ is the only solution to the problems of current society. Think about and record your thoughts concerning the problems of our society that might be reconciled through the cross.

Question 13: Think back through this lesson. Write down what you learned that is new. Also, note what applications you can make to your life.

What Is Jesus Doing Now?

LESSON OUTLINE

- A. His Resurrection
- B. His Position
- C. His Resurrection and You

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- 1. Recognize the value of Jesus' resurrection
 - 2. Explain Jesus' current position
 - 3. Describe the central message of his disciples
 - 4. Relate yourself to his resurrection

ASSIGNMENTS

- 1. Study this lesson by answering all questions.
 - 2. Memorize Acts 2:32.

No one in all of history has had such an impact on this world as Jesus Christ did. No one in all of history lived a completely sinless life, died on a cross, rose from the grave, and conquered death. Jesus' death is an astonishing expression of his love for us. However if the death of Jesus on the cross marked the end of his life, he would have eventually become a vague memory, no different than any other great historical figure. Indeed the Bible clearly shows that Jesus not only died on the cross but that he also rose from the dead. Jesus was resurrected and is still alive and relevant to us today. Praise the Lord!

There are some people who acknowledge that Jesus existed, lived his life, and then died. These same people choose to reject the truth and power of the resurrection; hence they are unable to know Christ fully. Christ prophesied of his resurrection while he was ministering among the people. Furthermore the resurrection was the crux or central point of the disciples' testimony. The disciples and others were so convicted of the truth of the resurrection of Jesus that they risked their own lives for the sake of sharing the good news (gospel).

Question 1: Write down your thoughts to the above different responses concerning the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

A. His Resurrection

Objective 1: Recognize the value of Jesus' resurrection
--

Question 2: What did Jesus predict before he died? Matthew 16:21

Question 3: The Bible tells us that Jesus resurrected just as he prophesied. Who saw the resurrected Jesus? 1 Corinthians 15:3-8

Question 4: After his resurrection, what did Jesus proclaim to his disciples? Matthew 28:18. What did Paul say about the resurrection of Jesus? Romans 1:4

Relying on these statements we have no choice but to accept Jesus as Lord.

B. His Position

Objective 2: Explain Jesus' current position

Objective 3: Describe the central message of his disciples

Question 5: Read Acts 1:9-11. After Jesus' resurrection where was Jesus taken up into?

Read Ephesians 1:20-23 and answer the following three questions:

Question 6: Where is Jesus sitting now? v 20

Question 7: What things is Jesus far above? v 21

Question 8: What two things are given to Jesus? v 22

Question 9: After Jesus had risen from the dead and was raised to heaven, what was the fact the disciples emphasized the most about Jesus? Acts 2:32; 4:33

C. His Resurrection and You

Objective 4: Relate yourself to his resurrection

Question 10: What benefits could occur in our life by placing our faith and belief in the resurrection of Jesus Christ? Romans 6:4-5

14 • One-to-One Discipleship Training

Question 11: According to 1 Corinthians 15:14-19, what problems would arise for "believers" if Jesus' resurrection is not a historical fact?

Question 12: One can regard Jesus highly even if one did not believe in his resurrection. However without the resurrection understanding of Christ and his works is impossible. Write down what you think about Jesus' resurrection.

Question 13: Think back through this lesson. Write down what you learned that is new. Also, note what applications you can make to your life.

Believing in Jesus Christ

LESSON OUTLINE	LESSON OBJECTIVES
A. Understanding Believing in Him	1. Understand what believing in Jesus means
B. Understanding the Changes When You Believe in Him	2. Acknowledge the steps to believe in Jesus
C. Commit Your Life to Him	3. Understand the changes in your life when you believe in Jesus
	4. Commit your life to Jesus by believing in him as your Savior

ASSIGNMENTS

1. Study this lesson by answering all questions.
2. Memorize Galatians 2:20.

Knowing who Jesus is, what he has accomplished, and what his role is in this world does not necessarily transform one's life. Of course, this knowledge alone cannot reform this society either. To live a new life and to build a new society, each one of us needs to experience the power of Jesus and come to the realization of his authority.

Question 1: What can you do to experience the power of Jesus and realize his authority?

A. Understanding Believing in Him

Objective 1: Understand what believing in Jesus means

Objective 2: Acknowledge the steps to believe in Jesus

Objective 3: Understand the changes in your life when you believe in Jesus

In this lesson, we will be introducing you to how Jesus' disciples responded to the command to believe in Jesus Christ and follow him whole-heartedly. Let us seriously consider the truth the disciples proclaimed, how it transformed their lives and positively influenced society. Your response to their proclamation of the gospel will be the most important moment in your life.

Read John 3:16 and answer the following questions:

Question 2: John 3:16 says, "For God so loved the world." What does the world refer to and what areas does the world include?

God does not just love people's souls. He loves all aspects of his creation including all of humanity.

Question 3: God sent his only Son to us because he loved us so much. What did Jesus do for this world? (Review Lessons 2 and 3)

Question 4: How can you receive eternal life according to John 1:12? (Here eternal life means knowing God and living with him.)

Believing Jesus simply means to place your faith or trust in Jesus as your Savior and Lord, acknowledging the reality of his forgiveness for you accomplished through his death and resurrection.

Question 5: When you say you believe in Jesus, what specific actions does it involve?

a) Romans 10:9, 10

b) John 1:12

c) Acts 2:38

B. Understanding the Changes When You Believe in Him

Question 6: What changes take place when a person believes in Jesus? John 5:24

a) Present condition

b) The promise of the future

c) The change in the past

Question 7: What changes can you expect when you believe in Jesus?

- a) At home (Acts 16:30-31)
- b) Neighborhood (1 John 4:11)
- c) In society (Matthew 5:13-16)

We have a special relationship with God when we believe in Jesus Christ. That is, we are God's people (1 Peter 2:9) and children of God (John 1:12). It also means that special relationships with other believers form as soon as we have a relationship with God.

Question 8: How is our relationship with other believers described in Romans 12:5?

Believers all have relationships with one another without exception and become one body in Christ. This is called the church. Although the church we see is not perfect, Jesus paid the price for this church with his blood (Acts 20:28).

Question 9: How does the Scripture portray the relationship between Jesus and the church? Ephesians 5:23

- a) As the relationship between employer and employee
- b) As the relationship between father and son
- c) As the relationship between pastor and believer
- d) As the relationship of husband as head of the wife

C. Commit Your Life to Him

Objective 4: Commit your life to Jesus by believing in him as your Savior

Let us review what we have learned thus far:

1. Jesus Christ is both fully human and fully God.
2. Jesus Christ lived a perfect life on earth and died on the cross for the sin of the world.
3. Jesus Christ has risen and is Lord of this world.
4. By believing in Jesus Christ, an individual as well as society can experience transformation.

Question 10: These four lessons lead you to the most important decision of your life; that is whether or not to put your faith in Jesus. Do you want to believe in this Jesus? Do you want to invite him into your life as your Lord and Savior?

If you do, you can express your trust in him through a brief prayer such as in the below. Read the prayer carefully. It is very important to understand the prayer. If you do not understand any from the prayer ask it to your facilitator. If you have any doubt in your mind share it to your facilitator. If you understand it without any doubt and want to invite Jesus as your Savior from the penalty of your sin and your Lord in your life, tell it to your facilitator. He will lead you in the prayer. Repeat when your facilitator leads the following prayer:

Lord Jesus, I am a sinner and I need the forgiveness only you can give. I thank you for paying the penalty for my sin through your death and resurrection. I now receive you as my Savior and Lord. Thank you for coming into my life. I prayed in your name. Amen.

It is important to remember to “thank him” for coming into your life as thanking him demonstrates your faith. Doubts will come about your salvation. In Lesson 1 of Unit 3, you will study more completely about how to have a confident assurance of your relationship with the Lord. If you are not yet ready to receive Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord or still do not fully understand the significance of what he did for you, please go back and read through this lesson once again and continue on with the study. God will give you understanding of his great love for you as you sincerely seek after him.

Question 11: As you make or renew this important decision, share your thoughts on how you feel.

Question 12: Think back through this lesson. Write down what you learned that is new. Also, note what applications you can make to your life.

Fellowship

Quiet Time

Now that we have a greater understanding of who Jesus Christ is, let us turn our attention to the importance of a devotional Bible study or Quiet Time in the life of a believer. A Christian cannot grow spiritually without consistently interacting with the word of God. God's word is essential spiritual nourishment for the believer even as milk is essential physical nourishment for a newborn baby. Study this part and make Quiet Time a part of your life. You will experience spiritual growth through reading, meditating, and applying the word of God in your daily Quiet Time.

A. Defining Quiet Time

Objective 1: Define Quiet Time in your own words

When we receive Christ and become a Christian and also have an assurance of salvation, a personal relationship is formed with Christ. Just as we need to associate with people to deepen our relationships, a personal fellowship with Christ is necessary to deepen our relationship with him. The time when such association is made on a personal basis is referred to as either Quiet Time (QT) or time of devotion.

Examine what kind of relationship you have with Jesus Christ. Is Jesus close to you? Do you meet him regularly? Quiet Time provides a way to be with him. Let us look to Jesus and his example of Quiet Time.

Question 1: How did Jesus spend his day? Matthew 4:23

How do you spend your day? Write down your responses, and write the things you do in the order of most time spent.

Question 2: Even with his busy schedule, what did Jesus still make an important priority to? Luke 5:15-16.

Question 3: Before Jesus started his day what did he do early in the morning? Mark 1:35

How do you spend your morning?

Question 4: David was a man who sought to please God (Acts 13:22). David was able to please God because he had a deep fellowship with God. Read Psalms 5:3 and 143:8, and summarize how David spent his times with God.

This is what is referred to as a time of devotion or what is commonly called a Quiet Time (QT).

B. Reasons for Quiet Time

Objective 2: Explain reasons why a regular Quiet Time is important to the Christian

Why do Christians have QT? Why is it important to be quiet before God? See the following for possible reasons Christians may have for spending QT with God:

To have a personal relationship with God. The relationship with God cannot be broken once it is established (Romans 8:39). But to deepen this relationship, continuous fellowship is necessary. There are several ways of having fellowship with God; we can have a personal and intimate fellowship with him through QT.

To receive the guidance and protection of God. We will gain more knowledge and understanding of him as he provides insight and answers to problems in our daily lives through his Holy Spirit and his word.

Question 5: How do the following verses describe the guidance and protection of God?

a) Psalm 119:105

b) Psalm 119:133

God provides concrete answers to the problems in our daily lives through QT.

To learn how to be more like Christ in his character, personality, and life (2 Corinthians 3:18). For Christians to be the ‘salt and light’ of the world and spread the gospel, we should be true examples of the Christian faith. We need a personal relationship with God if we desire for our lives and personality to be transformed.

To carry out the Lord's work (Luke 5:15-16; Mark 1:35). To do the works assigned in the church and to carry out the duty of spreading the gospel in the world, it is imperative to receive power and direction through fellowship with God.

C. Preparation for Quiet Time

Objective 3: Describe how to prepare Quiet Time practically

1. Your Mind

You are about to have fellowship with God, the Almighty Creator. Prepare your mind with expectation and fear. In this case, the fear is related to reverence to God. It is a combination of love and respect for an awesome God.

2. The Bible and QT Notebook

Open your Bible to the passage on which you will meditate for the day's QT. We recommend you to have QT systematically. Once you start a book in the Bible for your QT, continue the book until you finish it.

Normally one paragraph is appropriate for a day's QT. If it is too short, you can continue to the next paragraph. If it is too long, you can stop in the middle of the paragraph. Be flexible on the amount for a day's QT. Sometimes the Holy Spirit teaches enough lessons from one verse. If that is the case, stop there and continue with the remaining verses on the next day.

Be ready to write down what the Holy Spirit impresses on you in your QT notebook. Use the format provided at the end of this lesson for recording your insights. Do not use any secondary material for your QT. You need to have direct fellowship with the Holy Spirit through his word.

3. Place and Time

The place for your QT is very important. You want to have a personal fellowship with the Lord, and you do not want to be disturbed. Find a place where you can spend twenty to thirty minutes with God without any disturbance.

Time often plays a crucial role in having consistent QT. Usually early morning is the most appropriate time for QT because you can start a new day with his guidance. However the time for QT is flexible depending on one's situation. The important thing is to make sure the time for QT is not sacrificed because of other urgent matters in your life and ministry.

D. Suggested Method for Quiet Time

Objective 4: Know how to do Quiet Time by yourself

The purpose of QT is not to understand the Scriptures thoroughly but to have God speak to you through his word. You can start QT using the following steps:

1. Praise God

Start your QT with praise. To praise God means to commend him for all that he has done. Please read Psalm 59:17 for an example of praising God. You can praise God in prayer, while singing songs at church, while listening to praise music, or while meditating on the Psalms, such as Psalm 98. Praise prepares the heart to go before God.

2. Depend on the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the author of the Bible, which was written through his inspiration. Therefore he illumines us to understand the Scriptures.

3. Find Truths by Meditating on the Word

God wants to reveal himself to us through the Scriptures (giving comfort, hope, warning, direction, etc.). Therefore we need to meditate on the words he gives us each day. During your QT, read the given text several times. Read his words with humility before God and the respect for his authority. Also, the more we meditate upon God's word, the more our minds become focused on his eternal truths.

Meditate on the Scripture and find his eternal truths like the following:

- 1) Sins to confess
- 2) Promises to keep
- 3) Examples to follow
- 4) Actions to take
- 5) Knowledge on God, Jesus Christ, or the Holy Spirit

Remember an English word, SPEAK. Allow the Holy Spirit to SPEAK to you through his word. The Holy Spirit sometimes may illumine several truths from one verse, and sometimes none. Remember that you do not have to understand everything in the passage, but you need to listen to what the Holy Spirit is speaking to you through the passage at that moment. You may have to read the same verse several times over in order to find truths. This may seem repetitive at first, but as you become familiar with the method, you will be able to find truths more quickly. It takes time to make the method yours, do not give up!

4. Apply It Practically

Question 6: In Psalm 119:15, 97, meditation on the word is emphasized. What is the difference between meditating and just reading?

Meditating on the word without application is like a tree without fruit. For the word to be “a lamp to my feet and a light to my path,” you need to apply the word to your life. Applying is reflecting upon and incorporating into your life these new insights, as well as relating to people and events with the truths which you have found. The following three elements are necessary for an effective application.

- 1) It should be personal
- 2) It should be practical.
- 3) It should be possible.

5. Pray about the Results of the Word

Ask for God's help to submit to what the word has said to you.

6. Share the Experience

Tell others about the changes that have taken place in your life as a result of applying God's word. While sharing with others the grace that God has given us, our relationship will become warmer and deeper.

The method introduced here is a small but very helpful way to grow in spiritual maturity. Over time you may develop your own methods that will be more useful for you. Slowly, but steadily, walk with the word. You will enjoy an abundant life and live in a manner that pleases God. Read Colossians 1:10-12.

E. Some Helps on Quiet Time

Objective 5: List some helpful points for a successful Quiet Time

It is not easy to have a QT regularly even though we know its benefits. Think through the following helps to encourage a faithful and regular QT:

1. Discipline (1 Timothy 4:7)

Discipline and training are necessary for a life of devotion (1 Corinthians 9:25-26).

Question 7: What hinders QT in your life?

2. Accountability

Find a fellow Christian with whom you can share the truths you have discovered in the Bible and the insights the Holy Spirit has given you during your QT. God intends for believers to consistently learn biblical truths from each other. Regular informal times of sharing insights with other believers will not only increase your faith but will encourage you to have daily QT with the Lord. Read Hebrews 10:21-25 and 2 Timothy 2:2. Frequent church meetings and worship at home may also be a help in establishing a steadfast QT.

3. Continuity

Sometimes you may find yourself going without QT for several days or even months. It is time to restart. Think about the value and importance of the word of God in your life. Especially think of the personal fellowship with the Almighty God through his word and start again with prayer.

4. QT Notebook

To help you in the use of this notebook, write at the top of each page the date and passage you are using for your QT. You will write the Title at the end of QT. The note has mainly two parts; Truths and Application. List the truths you find from the passage under Truths. After listing all truths, select one or two truths from them, and develop a plan to apply it to yourself. Write your plan under Application. Your application should be as specific as possible. You may close your QT with a short prayer committing your purpose to apply God's truths in your life. Do not forget that you still need to act out the application in order to honor God.

Question 8: Think back through this lesson. Write down what you learned that is new. Also, note what applications you can make to your life.

Now that we have a greater understanding of who Jesus Christ is and of the importance of a Quiet Time in the life of a believer, Unit 3 will devote a lesson to each of the remaining topics of the Christ-directed life, beginning with focusing on one's assurance of salvation.

The key to living a victorious, Spirit-filled Christian life is having Christ at the center of everything you do. When Christ is at the center you are yielding to him, allowing him to direct all the interests of your life. With Christ as the captain, your life is on a steady course to becoming spiritually strong and your faith grows. This dependence upon Christ should be the desire of every Christian.

The helm illustrates the CHRIST-DIRECTED LIFE, including the following topics of study which are essential for such life:

Objective 1: Confidently answer to the questions regarding your salvation

Often a person will have questions about salvation, even after accepting the Lord’s gracious gift of forgiveness of sins and becoming a member of his body. This lesson should help you gain assurance of salvation. Please answer the following question:

- | | | | |
|------------------------------------|-----|----|----------|
| 1. Do you believe in Jesus Christ? | Yes | No | Not Sure |
|------------------------------------|-----|----|----------|

If you answered “Yes” to this question, then honestly answer the following questions:

- | | | | |
|---|-----|----|----------|
| 2. Is Jesus Christ in your heart? | Yes | No | Not Sure |
| 3. Are you sure that your sins are forgiven? | Yes | No | Not Sure |

| 9. Are you born again? | Yes | No | Not Sure |
| 10. Are you sure that you will not be condemned to eternal death? | Yes | No | Not Sure |

Refer to the following passages (question numbers):

Revelations 3:20 (2); Romans 8:1 (3, 10); Colossians 1:12-14 (3, 5, 7); John 1:12 (4); 1 John 5:11-13 (5); John 5:24 (5, 7, 10); Acts 16:31 (6); Ephesians 2:8-9 (6); Luke 23:42-43 (7); 1 Corinthians 12:3 (8); John 3:3-5 (7, 9); Titus 3:5 (6, 8, 9); John 3:18 (10)

Your confident and positive answers indicate that you are sure of your salvation. Becoming a Christian involves receiving Jesus Christ by faith. It is the gift of God's love and forgiveness. It results in a threefold commitment of a person to Christ of one's intellect, emotions, and will. In other words, it is a commitment of the whole being.

Our relationship with Christ can be analogous to the concept of marriage, which must also contain the same three ingredients. For example, a man may be convinced intellectually that the woman who is his intended bride is the “right” spouse for him. He may be involved emotionally and love her with all his heart, but marriage requires more than the intellect and the emotions. It also involves the will. Not until the man and the woman, as an act of the will, commit themselves to each other before a minister do they become husband and wife. The two words, “I do,” make all the difference.

So it is with your relationship with Jesus Christ. It is neither enough to believe intellectually in Christ, nor is it enough to have an emotional experience. Though both are valid, you do not become a Christian until, as an act of the will, you trust Jesus Christ as your Savior and Lord. Let us examine each of the three elements of Christian commitment.

Objective 2: Understand the threefold commitment of the intellect, emotion, and will in your salvation

A. Commitment of the Intellect

Christianity is not “a blind leap of faith.” It is built upon historical facts, documented by centuries of scholarship and research. Many leading scholars have dedicated their lives to investigating the life, teachings, death, resurrection, and influence of Jesus of Nazareth. As a result, we have more historical evidence proving his resurrection than we have proof that Napoleon was defeated at Waterloo.

This good news of Jesus Christ's resurrection was the message of the revolutionary New Testament church. It is still a revolutionary message today. It is a fact of history.

In order to make an intellectual commitment, we need to have a clear understanding of the gospel recorded in the Bible. Now let us determine if we have understanding of both the gospel and its historical facts.

1. Who is Jesus Christ?

Question 1: State in your own words what you think Jesus meant when he made the following claims:

- a) John 10:30
- b) John 14:8-9

Question 2: State in your own words what others thought of Jesus Christ.

- a) Matthew 14:33
- b) Matthew 27:54
- c) John 20:28

2. What Did He Do?

Question 3: What did Jesus do while he was on the earth? Acts 10:38

Question 4: What was the purpose of Jesus' death on the cross? Mark 10:45; Romans 5:8

3. What Is He Doing Now?

Question 5: According to Jesus, what would happen after his death? Matthew 16:21

Question 6: What is the resurrected Jesus doing and where is he now? Ephesians 1:20-23

4. Have the Commitment of the Intellect

Question 7: Write, in your own words, what John 3:16 is stating.

B. Commitment of the Emotion

An emotion is a feeling or reaction to a specific act, event or experience. Having been created with emotions, we experience emotional reactions in the process of hearing the gospel of Jesus, coming to know him, and believing in him. However the failure to distinguish between different emotions has caused many people to be confused in their relationship with God.

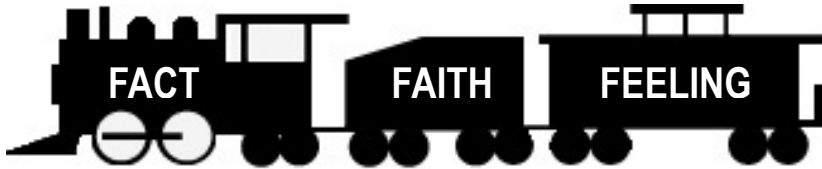

1. Emotion Varies

As human beings, emotions are a normal part of our lives. Different personalities obviously produce varying reactions. One person may have high emotional energy, while another may be calm and reserved. Because emotions vary greatly, they should not be depended upon. Even though we all need to experience God, seeking an emotional experience has caused many to lack the assurance of a vital relationship with God.

2. Emotion as a Result of Faith

Assurance is based on the authority of God's word. When you meet God's conditions, as revealed in his word, you can be assured that you are a child of God. The Christian lives by faith in the trustworthiness of God himself and his word.

The train diagram illustrates the relationship between fact (God and his word), faith (our trust in God and his word), and feeling (the results of our experience). Note the three components in the diagram. The engine is in the front to pull the train. The firebox that contains the heat source or fuel follows the engine. The last one is a caboose. The train will run with the power of steam produced in the engine using the heat source from the firebox. The engine cannot pull the train if the fuel is not provided. The train will run with or without the caboose, but it would be useless to attempt to pull the train by the caboose.

In the Christian life, fact is the engine, faith is the heat source, and feeling is the caboose. When we, as Christians, add our faith on the fact which is the word of God, our believing life can go forward. As the caboose cannot pull the train, we should not depend upon feelings or emotions. Instead, we must place our faith in the trustworthiness of God and the promises of his word.

C. Commitment of the Will

In addition to the intellect and emotions, becoming a Christian and being certain that you are a Christian involves the will. Christ emphasized the importance of one's will in relation to the assurance of salvation. A Christian must make a conscious commitment to believe in and to follow Jesus Christ.

Question 8: What kind of commitment of the will did Jesus ask of a young ruler in Luke 18:22?

Jesus does not ask everyone to make the same kind of commitment as the ruler. However he does ask of you to make a commitment of the will to him.

Question 9: How did the blind beggar (Bartimaeus), who met Jesus on the road to Jericho, express his commitment? Luke 18:39, 41

D. Threefold Confirmation

Objective 3: List three ways that your salvation can be confirmed

Objective 4: Commit your life as a disciple of Jesus Christ

God gives us a threefold confirmation that Christ is in our lives.

1. The Word

Question 10: What is the first source of confirmation that Christ is in our lives?
1 John 5:9-13

We have the external evidence of the word of God. Assurance is based on the authority of God's word.

2. The Holy Spirit

Question 11: Read Romans 8:16 and find the second source of confirmation.

There is the internal witness of the Holy Spirit who testifies with our spirit that we are God's children.

3. Changed Life

Question 12: What is the final source of confirmation that Christ is in our lives?
1 John 2:3-6.

The proof that we have experienced a new birth and have become children of God will be demonstrated by our changed lives.

E. Dealing with Doubts

Objective 5: Understand dealing with doubts and forgiveness of sin

The enemy (Satan) desires that we doubt our salvation so as to make us discouraged in our faith and walk with the Lord. Knowing how to deal with these doubts is very critical to our consistent growth in spiritual maturity. Reading, studying, memorizing, applying God's word, being attentive to the Spirit's work in our lives, and remembering the ways God is changing our lives are all important weapons against doubt. Another important weapon against doubt is to know how to deal with sin and guilt in our lives that is through confession of sin. Confession of our sin to God needs to be a regular part of our walk with him.

Question 13: Write in your own words what Hebrews 10:12 and 1 John 1:9 say about the forgiveness of sin.

To make forgiveness a reality in your life each and every day, confess your sin to God by:

- Acknowledging that your sin is against God
- Remembering that he has forgiven that sin once and for all through his death on the cross
- Thanking him for his forgiveness...thanking him demonstrates your faith and that it is true for you.

Another important step! If you have sinned against someone, then go to this person and ask forgiveness for the wrong you have done. This will go a long way in helping to restore any broken relationship.

Do you have any sin in your life that should to be confessed to God? Take a few moments right now and confess it to God and remember to thank him for his forgiveness!

Do you need to ask the forgiveness of someone you have wronged? Make plans to do this sooner than later!

Question 14: Think back through this lesson. Write down what you learned that is new. Also, note what applications you can make to your life.

ASSIGNMENTS

1. Take sermon notes during a worship service.
2. Read one chapter a day from John 1-7.
3. Study this lesson.
4. Memorize Romans 5:8 and Matthew 5:48.
5. Have Quiet Time regularly.

We have entered into a special relationship with God because we now believe in Jesus. We know with certainty that we are God's children and we believe that we will live with him forever. The Holy Spirit counsels us to have such faith (Romans 8:16), but as we begin our spiritual journey with this personal conviction, we need objective facts about the God in whom we have placed our faith. Abstract and philosophical conceptions of God will no longer suffice. We need to know our God more deeply. Only with clearer knowledge will our faith become stronger.

As Christians, we already know God. However if God is to be the constant center of our lives, we need to know more about God's attributes. Only then will we be able to live in a manner pleasing to God. The Bible teaches very specifically about God's attributes.

Many people live a life of doubt and unbelief because they do not know God's character. Knowing God is very important as we live our lives. If we do not know him, it is easy to commit wrong, since it is difficult to understand the circumstances and direction of our lives without the knowledge of God. The mightiest thoughts the mind can entertain are the thoughts of God. But our ideas concerning God should correspond to that which is true of God. Only then can we truly worship and lead a genuine Christian life.

Question 1: In Hosea 6:3, 6, what does Hosea emphasize?

There are many ways to know more about God. Let us start first with a study of the attributes of God as found in the Bible.

A. The Attributes Unique to God

Objective 1: List some attributes unique to God and understand his greatness

The following attributes are those that belong to God exclusively so that there is nothing resembling them in a created being or spirit.

1. God Is Sovereign

The word sovereign means “chief, highest or supreme.” When we say that God is sovereign, we are saying that he is the ultimate ruler in the universe.

Question 2: In Romans 11:36, how is God's sovereignty described?

Question 3: As you discover the reality of God's sovereignty, record your thoughts and how your attitudes about the world change. The implications of this truth are endless!

2. God Is Eternal

There has never been a time when God did not exist. He has no beginning and has no end. God is not bound by time. Having always existed, he sees the past and future of our lives.

Question 4: How do Isaiah 44:6 and 1 Timothy 1:17 illustrate God's eternal nature?

Question 5: How does knowing that the God of the past is also the God of the present and the future edify our faith? Hebrews 13:8

3. God Is Omniscient

God knows all things. Nothing ever takes him by surprise—about the salvation of believers, or in fact, about every occurrence in this world. There is nothing that he does not know.

Question 6: The Bible teaches that God is the source of all wisdom (Isaiah 40:12-14) and that he knows everything (1 John 3:20). Does this mean that he knows every aspect of our personal lives?

Question 7: How does the fact that God knows your every detail influence your attitudes about life? Matthew 10:29-31

4. God Is Omnipresent

God is infinite and present everywhere through all time and space. Therefore it is foolish to think that we can hide from him. Through faith, a believer can experience the presence of God at all times and know the blessings of walking with him.

Question 8: What does it mean that God fills heaven and earth?
Jeremiah 23:24

Question 9: How does knowing that God is omnipresent help your spiritual life? Psalm 139:7-8

5. God Is Omnipotent

God is all-powerful, having more than enough strength to do the sum total of all things. By God's power all things were created, redeemed, and sustained. In particular, it is by God's power that those who believe in him are saved.

Question 10: God is omnipotent and accomplishes his works through his power (Psalm 147:5; Ephesians 3:20). How can faith in an all-powerful God help us in situations of difficulty or weakness? Philippians 4:13; 2 Corinthians 12:9

6. God Is Immutable

God's word is full of his promises to his children. We can rest assured knowing that God will fulfill every one of his promises; therefore we can trust his word. God's providence will be seen in changing ways, but God is unchanging (Psalm 102:27; James 1:17).

Question 11: We do not always understand God's ways, yet we know that he will never change. How does believing that God is immutable edify your faith? Record your response to these statements after studying Psalm 102:27 and James 1:17.

B. The Attributes of God Shared by Humanity

Objective 2: Explain some attributes of God shared by humanity

Objective 3: Give at least two examples of how we can grow in God's attributes

There are attributes of God that can be seen in God's relation to humanity. We can see limited manifestations of these attributes in his created beings and spirits.

1. God Is Merciful

Mercy is God not giving us the judgment that we deserve as sinners who have fallen short of God's standard of holy perfection. Matthew 18:21-33 is a good example of mercy. God is love. His love is given freely and without any consideration of the loveliness or merit of the object. God demonstrated his love for us by sending Jesus to die in our place (Romans 5:8).

Question 12: How is God's love revealed? John 3:16

Question 13: What should be our response to such love? 1 John 3:16

2. God Is Truthful

People often respond emotionally and not consistently. God is always true and consistent. Humans are continually searching for truth but will only find pure truth in God. God knows no falsehood (Titus 1:2).

Question 14: What must we do to live every aspect of our lives in truth?
Philippians 2:15

3. God Is Righteous

It is impossible for God to do or cause anything that is wrong, because God is perfect. God demands perfection from those who desire to be in his presence. This impossible standard shows us that salvation is not humanly possible and that we must rely on God's grace.

Question 15: God is righteous (Deuteronomy 32:4). Therefore as God's people we must also be righteous (Matthew 5:48). What can we do to become righteous?

4. God Is Just

God's justness will become most evident on the day of his final judgment. When humans stand before God on the last day, they will receive full justice. This is both an encouragement and a warning to repent.

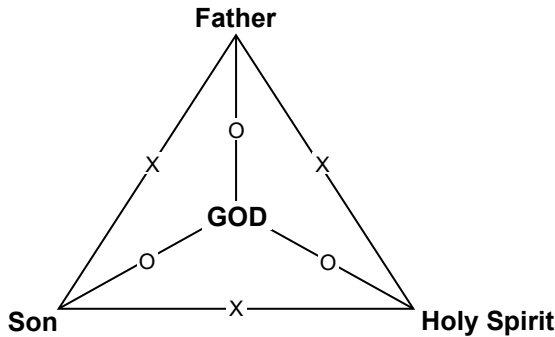

Question 16: What areas of your life could be changed by having proper understanding of God's justice? Romans 1:18-19

C. The Trinity

Objective 4: Describe the concept of the Trinity and acknowledge its importance in Christianity

It is possible for one to know something of God through his creation (Romans 1:19). But such knowledge cannot be complete. Jesus said that we can only know God through Jesus himself (John 14:7), and we come to know Jesus through the Holy Spirit (John 16:14). Therefore to know God we must know the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

The verse “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit” (Matthew 28:19) shows us that each of the three persons of the Trinity is separate but equally authoritative.

Question 17: In John 10:30, how does Jesus introduce himself?

But Jesus distinguishes himself from the Father in John 17:1. This verse illustrates the relationship between Jesus and the Father.

Question 18: Acts 5:3-4 states that lying to the Holy Spirit is tantamount to lying to God. Who sent the Holy Spirit? John 14:16

The Holy Spirit commands the same position that God does, but is also distinguishable from God.

Question 19: What is another name for the Holy Spirit? John 16:7

The fact that the Holy Spirit reveals Jesus' glory rather than his own implies that the Holy Spirit is distinguishable from Jesus (John 16:14).

Only when we accept the Trinity can we clearly distinguish our faith from other religions or philosophical teachings, and establish a correct basis for it.

Question 20: Think back through this lesson. Write down what you learned that is new. Also, note what applications you can make to your life.

- 4. Memorize 2 Timothy 3:16 and 1 Peter 2:2.
- 5. Have Quiet Time regularly.
- 6. Memorize the names of the New Testament books.

Objective 1: Describe the brief history of the formation of the Bible

The Bible is a compilation of books written by around forty authors in a period spanning 1,500 years. The Old Testament is the word that Moses and the prophets received from God. It has been handed down orally or in writing through history. The Pentateuch was established as the authorized version in the fifth century BC; the books of the prophets and the books of literature in the second century BC. The Old Testament is composed of thirty-nine books and is written mostly in Hebrew.

בְּרֵאשִׁית בָּרָא אֱלֹהִים אֶת הַשָּׁמַיִם וְאֶת הָאָרֶץ

The New Testament is a compilation of books and letters written by the disciples who were inspired by God. Recognition of a formal canon of the New Testament did not occur until long after the time of its writing. The collection and recognition of all the New Testament books was a gradual process. During the first century of the church (from Pentecost to about AD 140), there was only a very slow distribution and recognition of the writings that later were brought together and recognized as inspired. After AD 140 a more rapid recognition of the canonical books occurred. By the end of the second century almost all of the books were known and recognized as authoritative. Finally, by the end of the fourth century the official canon of the New Testament was recognized and fixed.

Why did it take so long for the authority of all the New Testament books to be acknowledged by the church? First, the New Testament church already had a canon of Scripture—the Old Testament—which was considered all that was needed in the church—for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness (2 Timothy 3:16).

Second, as long as the apostles were alive, there was little felt need for an authoritative body of writings. The early church already had the Old Testament and the living apostles to teach them (Acts 2:42). There was no urgency to copy and distribute the New Testament books so that they could be widely known and acknowledged.

Third, the recipients of the New Testament books were spread all across the Mediterranean basin. It is likely that churches would share with other churches any authoritative books that they received from the apostles. But because of poor communication and the slow production of books, no single church would always know about all of the apostolic writings in existence. Churches would receive various portions of the New Testament without knowing what portions other churches possessed.

The New Testament is composed of twenty-seven books and was, in the original manuscripts, written entirely in Greek.

¹⁶ Οὕτως γὰρ ἠγάπησεν ὁ θεὸς τὸν κόσμον, ὥστε τὸν υἱὸν τὸν μονογενῆ ἔδωκεν, ἵνα πᾶς ὁ πιστεύων εἰς αὐτὸν μὴ ἀπόληται ἀλλ' ἔχῃ ζωὴν αἰώνιον.

The Bible's purpose is not only to educate us or give us mere knowledge, but it is also to teach us knowledge about the saving grace of God and how to walk with God in our daily lives.

Question 1: What is the origin and the purpose of the Bible?
2 Timothy 3:15-16

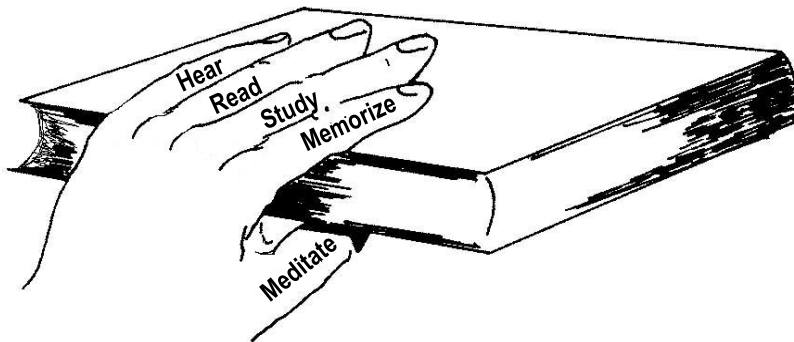

Question 2: What does Jesus say about the Scriptures in relation to himself?
John 5:39

Question 3: What attitude should Christians have towards the Bible?
1 Peter 2:2

Objective 2: List five ways in which you can interact with the word

Every Christian should know the “how” of learning and applying the Scriptures to life. This lesson introduces five ways of learning from the Bible. Compare these five ways or methods to the five fingers of your hand. If you hold the Bible with one or two fingers, it is easy to lose your grip. As you use more fingers, your grasp of the Bible becomes firmer. This is also true spiritually. If a person memorizes, studies, reads, hears the word, and then meditates on it, his or her grasp of the Bible becomes solid. As the thumb is needed in any combination with your fingers to complete your hold, so is meditation, combined with hearing, reading, studying, and memorizing, essential for a firm grasp of God's word.

A. Hear the Word

So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ. (Romans 10:17)

Question 4: What kind of heart will best hear and use the word? Luke 8:15

- a) An honest and good heart
- b) An alert and cautious heart
- c) An open but indifferent heart
- d) A well-trained, scholarly heart

Question 5: 1 Thessalonians 2:13 and Acts 17:11 teach us the correct attitude for listening to sermons. What other emphasis do these verses teach?

Most Christians hear the word of God preached, but only a few learn the benefit of conserving and applying what they hear. We encourage you to make taking notes a regular practice so that you might be able to retain what you heard and put it into practice. It will be easier to remember what you have learned in a sermon, as well as what Scriptures were examined if you write them down in a notebook.

B. Read the Word

Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear, and who keep what is written in it, for the time is near. (Revelation 1:3)

Anyone can easily buy and read the Bible nowadays. But when was the last time you were richly and deeply blessed by his word? The Bible was very precious in the ancient days because it was copied by hand; even after printing was invented, the cost was too great for the average person to be able to own a personal copy. Furthermore, most of the Bible was only translated into Latin so the majority of people could not read it in their own languages. There was a time when the church, in order to retain authority, forbade the people to read the Bible.

Question 6: List the reasons given for reading the Bible daily.
Deuteronomy 17:19

Question 7: Write out Revelation 1:3 in your own words.

The Bible reading referred to in Revelation 1:3 is public reading during a service, but it can be applied to personal reading in the modern world where people can buy and read the Bible easily. Set up a plan to read the Bible systematically. The two charts located at the end of this lesson can be used as guides in your Bible reading. If you follow the schedule in the charts every day, you will read through the Old and the New Testaments once a year. Make a copy of the charts and insert them into your Bible. You can keep track of your progress by scratching off the portions you read.

C. Study the Word

Now these Jews were more noble than those in Thessalonica; they received the word with all eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily to see if these things were so. (Acts 17:11)

Question 8: According to Proverbs 2:4, how should we study the word?

Question 9: What should be our goal in studying the Bible? 2 Timothy 2:15

Studying involves more than just careful reading—it also requires writing down what you discover. Reading is faster than studying and provides the big picture, but careful and detailed study will help you to think, to remember, and to apply. Christians can use some Bible study aids such as study Bibles, Bible dictionaries, Bible handbooks, and maps. However use commentaries with discernment. Although they can be helpful, you can become overly dependent upon them.

D. Memorize the Word

*How can a young man keep his way pure?
By guarding it according to your word.
Your testimonies are my heritage forever, for they are the joy of my heart. (Psalm 119:9, 111)*

Question 10: What does God want us to do with his word?

a) Deuteronomy 11:18a

b) Proverbs 7:3b

Question 11: How did Jesus overcome Satan's temptations?

Matthew 4:4, 7, 10

Question 12: Read Colossians 3:16. Record your thoughts on what you think "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly" means?

I know of no form of intake of the word which pays greater dividends for the time invested than Scripture memory. (Dawson Trotman)

Scripture memorization is very important. God calls us to commit his truth to memory that we might have more understanding of himself. There are many different ways to go about memorizing Scripture: write out the verse several times, repeat the verse out loud, read it over and over, etc. Not everyone memorizes in the same way or in the same amount of time, so it is not the method that matters, only that the verses are memorized.

There are twenty-five verses in this training program that are necessary for Christians to commit to memory. Memorize these essential verses using the method of your choice.

E. Meditate on the Word

Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night. (Psalm 1:1-2)

Meditation is prayerful reflection. It is a desire to understand and apply—giving prayerful thoughts to God's word in relation to your life. Meditation helps you to achieve the goal of conforming your life to his will.

The following questions will help you as you meditate upon God's truth:

1. What is the meaning of this verse based on its context? (There is only one true interpretation.)
2. How should this verse affect my life? (There are many applications.)

Always think of the above questions when you are listening to a sermon, when you are reading the Bible at a fixed time, when you study the Bible, and when you repeat the verses you have memorized.

Question 13: What promises are made to the person who meditates continually on and obeys the word of God?

a) Psalm 1:2-3

b) Joshua 1:8

Question 14: Consider Luke 6:45. Do you think meditating on God's word can affect your speech and actions? If so, how?

Question 15: Besides being diligent in learning God's word, what else should we do in order to understand it? Psalm 119:18, 73, 125

Objective 3: Develop a personal plan to practice the five ways of interaction with the word

The following chart will help you analyze how you interact with God's word. As you honestly fill in your response, pray about setting new goals and plans:

Method of Intake	Present Weekly Program	New Plan
Hearing (times)
Reading (chapters)
Studying (hours)
Memorizing (verses)
Meditating (times of QT)

The Scriptures were not given to increase our knowledge but to change our lives. (Dwight L. Moody)

Ignorance of the Bible means ignorance of Christ. (Jerome)

I thoroughly believe in a university for both men and women; but knowing the Bible without college education is more valuable than a college education without the Bible. Everyone who has a thorough knowledge of the Bible may truly be called educated, and no other learning—no matter how extensive—can form a proper substitute. (William Lyon Phelps)

Question 16: Think back through this lesson. Write down what you learned that is new. Also, note what applications you can make to your life.

- 4. Memorize John 15:7 and Philippians 4:6-7.

Prayer is the natural overflow of meaningful time in Scripture. Prayer to God completes the fellowship element in your relationship with him. Respond back to God in prayer after he speaks to you through his word. In this manner, you share your heart with the One who longs for your companionship.

Prayer is how the power of God is unleashed. Personal battles and battles for others are won in prayer, and the cause of Christ is thus furthered. Through prayer, you have the power and the privilege to be used by God to help change lives. We do not avail ourselves of this power primarily because of our unbelief. The disciples of the first century knew how to pray and claimed in faith the power of our omnipotent God to help change the course of history. We serve the same powerful God today and we too are able to call upon him in prayer.

A. What Is Prayer?

Objective 1: Define prayer in your own words by comparing similar things in other religions Prayer is simply communicating with God. It is a dialogue between two who love each other—God and human. As children of God, we are invited to draw near to the throne of grace with confidence (Hebrews 4:16).

To know exactly what prayer is, we need to know about the widely held misconceptions regarding prayer.

1. Prayer is not meditation by oneself. Prayer is offered to the living God.
2. Prayer is different from requesting to other gods in other religions. Prayer can only be offered in his name by those who believe in Christ (John 16:24).
3. Prayer is not just about making requests. The main purpose of prayer is to deepen our relationship with God.
4. Prayer is not just offered in public but starts in a private room (Matthew 6:6).
5. Prayer is not repeating meaningless religious words. Prayer is the deliverance of specific intentions.

Question 1: How should knowing that prayer is mainly about your relationship with God affect the content of your prayers? Think about the things you would like to share with someone you can completely trust to care for you—someone who looks out for your best interests and will never do you wrong. Then record how you will change the content of your prayers, knowing that you are conversing with the God of the universe who loves you, knows you by name, understands your every need, and longs to have a deep relationship with you. Think of ways to change the content of your prayers in order to deepen your relationship with God.

B. To Whom Do We Pray?

We pray to the Father in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ through the ministry of the Holy Spirit. Our prayers are validated by Christ and are interpreted to God the Father by the Spirit.

Question 2: What should the person who prays believe in? Hebrews 11:6

Because the Father is one of the Trinity, it is possible to pray to Jesus Christ or to the Holy Spirit. However the model way of praying to God has been showed to us by Jesus.

Question 3: Who intercedes for us as we pray?

- a) Romans 8:34
- b) Romans 8:26-27

C. Who Can Pray?

Objective 2: Explain who can pray to whom

1. Those Who Belong to Christ

Humans instinctively pray—even if only to false gods. There is a danger in “ignorant” prayer. True prayer can only be offered by those who have become children of God through faith in Christ alone, and came to God in the authority and name of Jesus Christ.

Question 4: Match the verse in the left column with the teaching about Jesus and prayer in the right column.

Verse	Teaching
John 14:6	• Jesus is the only mediator between God and humanity
1 Timothy 2:5	• Jesus promises to give us anything if we ask in his name
John 16:24	• Jesus claims to be the only way to the Father

Praying in Jesus’ name means more than a good-luck charm. It means we can petition the Father with all the authority of Christ! We ask in his name on the basis of who he is, not in our own name or on the basis of who we are (John 14:14).

D. Why Are We to Pray?

Objective 3: List some reasons why you should pray

1. To Communicate with God

We have to pray to maintain a loving relationship. God waits for us to come to him through prayer. The fact that God wants to have fellowship with us is an incredible fact.

2. To Glorify God (John 14:13)

We glorify God when we remember who he is and what he has done for us during prayer.

3. To Achieve Spiritual Growth

Just as a child needs food to grow physically, we need food to grow spiritually. Prayer which involves our talking to God and God talking to us through his word is our major source of spiritual food. We can miss a day without apparent ill effects; however if we continue this practice, we shall become undernourished, losing the strength to live a victorious life and to maintain boldness for a vital witness for Christ.

4. To Achieve Results for the Glory of God

Prayer is the divinely ordained means whereby God moves in the accomplishment of his mighty operations on this earth. The Bible records that weather was changed and people were released from prison as a result of prayer. God is still in the business of answering prayer. Prayer is the means of becoming a fruitful witness for Christ.

Question 5: Peter was released from prison in response to the prayers of other believers. Read through Acts 12:1-17. What was the response of the church when they found out Peter was released (Acts 12:14-16)? Why do you think they responded this way? Record your thoughts to these statements, then apply this teaching to your own attitude in prayer.

5. To Tell God Our Desires

We can tell God about our helps, needs, hurts, joys, and desires through prayer (Philippians 4:6-7).

Question 6: James gives three reasons why our prayers are not answered. What are they? James 4:2b-4

E. When Should We Pray?

Objective 4: Understand when we should pray, and explain the meaning of “praying without ceasing”

Question 7: According to 1 Thessalonians 5:17 what does Apostle Paul command about prayer?

There is a sense in which we should pray without ceasing—talking to God hundreds of times in the course of the day about everything. We need to see everything in relation to God, and to converse with him about it.

Question 8: What can you find about when to pray from Acts 3:1?

- a) The apostles prayed when they were in the temple.
- b) The apostles prayed when there were the sick.
- c) The apostles prayed at specific times.
- d) The apostles prayed before they performed miracles.

We should also set apart specific times each day for prayer. It is beneficial to meditate on the Scriptures and apply them to our lives while praying to God. This is called “Quiet Time.”

Group prayer should also be a vital part of a Christian's prayer life. Group prayer is simply a small group of Christians who pray together. In conversational prayer, each one prays briefly in an informal manner about one area of need based on specific truths from the word of God. An example of this would be praying for a fellow believer to live a holy life through obeying God's word based on the teaching of Psalm 119:9 and 11. Everyone in a group can also pray with one voice (Acts 1:14).

F. What Should Be Included in Prayer?

Objective 5: List the five elements of prayer with short explanations

The following five elements will help you lead a balanced prayer life.

1. Adoration

Acknowledge God's character and attributes. Praise him for his love, his power and majesty, and his wonderful gift of salvation through Christ.

Question 9: Find some examples of adoration of God from the following passages:

a) 1 Chronicles 29:11

b) Psalm 145:1-6

2. Confession

Confess your sins to God. Admit to God where you have sinned. Be honest and humble. Remember he knows you and loves you still.

Question 10: Why is confession of sins important?

a) 1 John 1:9

b) Psalm 32:5

This is not the forgiveness we receive at salvation by trusting Christ, but an ongoing forgiveness that we need to have fellowship with a holy God.

3. Thanksgiving

Tell God how grateful you are for everything he has given, even the unpleasant things. Your thankfulness will help you see his purposes.

Question 11: Why is thanksgiving important?

- a) Ephesians 5:20
- b) Psalm 100:4
- c) 1 Chronicles 23:30

4. Intercession

This involves knowing other people's situations and praying to God about them.

Question 12: What can be included in intercessory prayer?

- a) Colossians 1:9-12
- b) Colossians 4:2-4
- c) James 5:16
- d) 1 Timothy 2:2

5. Supplication

Pray for those things that you need. These are specific requests.

Question 13: How should we give supplication?

a) Matthew 7:7-8

b) James 4:2-3

G. How Can We Pray with Confidence?

Objective 6: Apply the method for confident prayer from this lesson to your prayer life

1. Abide

If our lives are yielded to him and his word abides in us so that we know his will, we can ask for anything we wish, because our will is to do his will (John 15:7). Abiding is walking in the spirit with no sin unconfessed and with a spirit of total availability to God.

2. Ask

Question 14: If we expect answers to our prayers, what must we do?
James 4:2-3. Also read John 14:14; 16:24.

3. Believe

Question 15: What does Jesus promise in Matthew 21:22?

God does not require us to have great faith; however we are to have faith in our great God. A life of faith is experienced only by those who walk in obedience to the Lord. When a person truly has faith in the only great God, that person will delight in both trusting and obeying God..

By faith we receive the answer to our requests. If you know that you are abiding in Christ, that you are controlled by the Holy Spirit, and that you are praying according to the word and will of God, you can expect God to answer your prayers, so be prepared to receive answers.

Question 16: Think back through this lesson. Write down what you learned that is new. Also, note what applications you can make to your life.

Fellowship involves meeting people and developing relationships with them. Christians need such relationships. However the fellowship of Christians has characteristics that are not found in the relationships of the world. The relationships in the world normally begin when individuals start associating with one another from a safe and appropriately maintained distance. The fellowship of Christians, on the other hand, began with the cross where Christ already accomplished the work of breaking down relational barriers (Ephesians 2:13-14). This fellowship of Christians is not a building or organization but a community of believers called the body of Christ. True fellowship begins with and is brought to its fullness through Christians coming together in worship.

A. Fellowship Through Worship

- Objective 1: Explain how you can have fellowship with God through worship*
- Objective 2: Describe your attitude as a worshipper and list some elements included in a worship service*
- Objective 3: Indicate the role of praise in worshipping God*

Many churchgoers believe that one goes to worship services mainly to listen to the sermons. Though it is an important part of worship, listening to the sermon is not the whole of worship. One does not worship for oneself but for God. It is through worship that one can have fellowship with God and other members of the body of Christ.

Question 1: What does God desire or insist as we worship him?
Leviticus 10:3

God is pleased when a community of believers comes to him in worship, desiring to praise his name and his glory. Our attitude in worship is important if we are to worship God in truth.

Question 2: John 4:24 commands us to worship God in “spirit and truth.” What kind of attitude of worship should we have if we are to obey this command? Record your thoughts after considering what this means and how it can affect your life. Write down how you can apply this to your worship life.

Question 3: Psalm 95:6 and Ecclesiastes 5:1-2 teach us about the outward attitudes of a worshipper. List them.

Worship does not need to be complex. But during worship, we must give God our hearts and our lives; we must desire to enter God's presence.

Question 4: Acts 2:42 teaches about the four elements needed in worship. What are they?

a)

b)

d)

Question 5: What are some other elements of true worship?
1 Chronicles 16:29; Colossians 3:16; Psalm 47:1-2, 5

Praise is one of the important components of the worship we lift up to God.

1. By praising God, we proclaim the absolute trust we have placed in the God of our salvation. By praising God, we can also put on the shield of faith against the attacks of the devil, and allow God to display his power.
2. Praise frees up our lives for the work of the Holy Spirit. Sometimes, praising precedes the renewing work of the Holy Spirit.
3. Praise contributes to the unity of the saints.
4. Praise prepares us to fix our hearts on God and to turn an attentive ear to him. It also paves the way for God who desires to pour out his love on us.
5. We get a foretaste of heaven as we enter God's presence in praise.

B. The Fellowship of Christians

Objective 4: List the characteristics of Christian fellowship

1. Be Members of One Another

So we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. (Romans 12:5)

If it is true that everyone is equal under the cross, every Christian has the privilege of becoming an integral member of the family of God. In the family of God, we must be willing to learn from one another and to encourage one another. The fellowship of the saints can fully develop only when Christians are diligent in building one another up. We cannot participate in this fellowship while isolating ourselves from the community of saints. God desires that all Christians become active members of God's family by joining a local church. The New Testament states that Christians are “members one of another.” Paul used an illustration to get this point across—the human body.

Question 6: Read 1 Corinthians 12:14-27. Summarize the conclusion Paul comes to in these verses. 1 Corinthians 12:27

2. Be United in Christ

There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call— (Ephesians 4:4)

The human body is not made up of separate and individual members. Rather, the body exists as a unified whole of many parts that are members of one body. Similarly, the church is not an association of individual Christians but is the body of Christ, consisting of people who are members of one another from the inception of their Christian lives.

In its broadest sense, the body of Christ is the historical and global community of the saints. The Bible frequently teaches about the body of Christ in the context of a specific local church community. Hence Christians must participate in the life of a local church and joyfully take on their respective roles as members of the body.

Satan's strategy involves destroying unity among Christians. He is the author of confusion, insensitivity, and false doctrines. In the Bible, we discover the power whereby Satan's strategy can be defeated.

Question 7: What did Jesus make a request to the Father in his prayer?
John 17:11

It is the power of “one-mindedness” in the body of Christ. This unity among Christians reveals the essence of the gospel; and that essence comprises the fact that “in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself.” (2 Corinthians 5:19) Christ was indeed God in the flesh. He was, and is, one with the Father. If unity is destroyed in Christ's body, then the most powerful means of communicating the gospel to lost souls that Christ is God are destroyed. The ingredient in the church that convinces non-Christians that Jesus is God is unity—living in “such harmony with one another.” This, in a sense, represents a miracle because humans generally move toward disunity. When non-Christians see true unity and true oneness, their hearts cry out to partake of that kind of love (John 17:21).

Question 8: Read John 17. Which of the following is NOT something Jesus prayed for in John 17?

- a) That the disciples may experience his joy
- b) That the disciples may experience the same unity as the Father and Son
- c) That the disciples may have the glory the Father gave to the Son
- d) That the world may experience his joy, glory, and unity

3. Accept the Differences of One Another

But grace was given to each one of us according to the measure of Christ's gift. (Ephesians 4:7)

All believers have been made one in the body of Christ, but there is still great diversity among Christians. We must understand and accept the many differences found among the members of the body if we are to be Christ's unified body.

a. We Have Received Different Gifts

*Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us...
(Romans 12:6a)*

The gift of salvation is from the one Holy Spirit, but he also gives other gifts. According to Paul, some were given the gift of teaching, others the gift of service, and some the gift of exhortation. The Holy Spirit desires these different gifts to be used in unity, for the building and edifying of the body of Christ, and not for comparing and criticizing.

Question 9: List the gifts from Romans 12:6-8.

b. We Have Been Given Different Levels of Faith

Let not the one who eats despise the one who abstains, and let not the one who abstains pass judgment on the one who eats, for God has welcomed him. (Romans 14:3).

If we are mature Christians, we will be sensitive toward our brothers and sisters in Christ who may not be as spiritually mature. We will be careful not to do anything that may cause them to stumble and fall into sin. If these two attitudes are working concurrently in a local body of believers, unity will emerge.

c. We Have Different Personal Backgrounds

After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" (Revelation 7:9-10)

Prejudice, favoritism, and discrimination in the body of Christ violate the laws of God. Furthermore, they violate the nature of the functioning body of Christ. We are all one. Every member is important—rich or poor, young or old, black or white, weak or strong, Jew or Gentile. If we show favoritism or judge people by outward appearances, we also destroy the unity, harmony, and oneness in the body of Christ which Christ and Paul both prayed and commanded.

Ephesians 2:11-12. Cultural, racial, national, and religious barriers are broken down when people are brought near to God by the blood of Christ. Enemies may experience peace and reconciliation when they come together as members of the body of Christ. All believers have the same access to God the Father because the same Spirit dwells in them. Together, we are being built into a dwelling place of God.

Question 10: Consider and record your responses to the following: “Enemies may experience peace and reconciliation when they come together as members of the body of Christ.” Think of an enemy you have (or had). How could being a member of the same body of Christ help you reconcile with that enemy and come back together in fellowship?

4. Love One Another

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another. (John 13:34)

This exhortation introduces another model by which our understanding of the functioning church is enriched. The concept of the family adds a dimension of warmth, concern and loyalty. The term “brotherly love” refers to the love that should coexist within family units. Applied to the church, it refers to the love Christians should have for each other as brothers and sisters in Christ. We are the family of God. We have all been “born again” into God’s eternal family.

Question 11: How should true love be expressed? 1 John 3:18

Question 12: How did the first century church express its love? Acts 4:32

5. Edify the Church

Therefore encourage one another and build one another up.
(1 Thessalonians 5:11)

Paul commended the Thessalonian Christians for their concern and love for one another. They had learned the importance of mutual encouragement, exhortation, and comfort. He knew the primary means of encouragement—God's truth. “We also thank God constantly for this, that when you received the word of God, which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men but as what it really is, the word of God, which is at work in you believers.” (1 Thessalonians 2:13)

Christians must be ready to share the word with others who are in special need of encouragement. But we cannot encourage one another with Scripture if we are not familiar with Scripture. Therefore every believer should study the word of God, not only for their personal growth but also for assisting others in their growth.

6. Conclusion

In the “body of Christ,” the church, every member must contribute to its continual growth. The church should be a group of people who believe in the word, who believe in the God of the Bible, who love and care for one another, and who want all people to be saved and experience fellowship with God and with other believers. This is what Jesus prayed during his ministry on earth.

I do not ask for these only, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. (John 17:20-21)

After creating the universe, God gave an important commission to mankind: “And God blessed them. And God said to them, ‘Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living thing that moves on the earth.’” (Genesis 1:28) This ultimate command was given to everyone—believer, unbeliever, man, woman, and child. Christians who believe in God as the Creator should wholeheartedly obey this command.

After his work on the cross and then his resurrection, Jesus gave an important commission to his disciples.

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age. (Matthew 28:19-20)

But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth. (Acts 1:8)

This commission has been given exclusively to those who believe in Jesus.

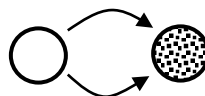

A. Attitude Toward the World

Objective 1: Construct a biblical attitude towards the world and work

We first need to have a biblical attitude toward the world in order to be an effective witness. The following are the three views on the relationship between the church and the world:

1. Antagonistic view - one of confrontation
2. Mediating view - one of compromise
3. Changing view - one of conquering

Among the three views, the changing view is the sound one which Christians should adopt. Christians have been called from the world to the body of Christ.

Question 1: Examine the three world views listed above and record your responses to the following:
Of the three, the changing view is taught as the sound one Christians should adopt. What are the dangers of antagonistic and mediating views, and why are they less appropriate for Christians? To help with your answer read Romans 12:1-2.

God dwells among the people who have been sent into the world and not in buildings which are separated from the world. (Thomas Gillespie)

B. Attitude Toward Work

God does not limit his interest only to our “church” activities. He is equally interested in our painting and teaching as much as he is interested in how we pray, how we read the Bible, and how we praise him. God does not separate between the “secular” and “divine” because all things are under his authority. As God calls us into a relationship with him, we come to realize that we should use all our activities to praise God and to serve our neighbors. Instead of saying, “I am not a minister of God but a carpenter,” we should say, “I am doing the work of a disciple of Christ through carpentry.”

Question 2: What was the consequence of Adam's disobedience?
Genesis 3:17-18

Work itself is not a result of sin. Work is a part of the principle of creation. The result of Adam's sin was that pain started to accompany the work which God had given.

Question 3: How should we, as saved Christians, view work?
Colossians 3:22-23

As they become a new creation in Christ, Christians should change their views of their work in the world. Christians who witness need to understand the society in which they live and should actively participate in their work. These people can witness effectively as they bear witness to their societies as salt and light.

C. Witnessing the Gospel

Objective 2: Describe the main points of witnessing by life and by words

Christians should share their faith in Jesus to nonbelievers so that they can also live a spiritually abundant life in Christ. To add validity to our witness, we should show them our devotion to Christ. It is necessary to learn the basic methods of witnessing. All of us can become an effective tool in God's hands as we train and gain experience.

1. The Challenge

Witnesses in a courtroom are expected to tell what they know about a given situation. The Christian witnesses are to tell others what they know about Jesus Christ and what it means to personally trust him.

Question 4: What was the first thing Andrew did after he met Jesus?
John 1:40-42

Question 5: What was Paul's message to the people? Acts 22:15

Question 6: Of what was Paul not ashamed? Romans 1:16

And why?

2. Witnessing by Life

Question 7: Since we are God's children living in a warped and wicked age, what kind of lives should we live? Philippians 2:15

How should we appear to the world?

Question 8: In Matthew 5:16, what do people notice when a Christian's life shines?

What can be the result?

You are writing a gospel,
A chapter each day,
By the things that you do,
And the words that you say.

People read what you write
Distorted or True.

What kind of gospel
Are you writing?

3. Witnessing by Word

Question 9: The blind man whom Jesus healed had little or no theological training, but he could give a simple and effective testimony. What facts did he relate? John 9:25

Read 1 Peter 3:15-16 and answer the following questions:

Question 10: What precedes telling others about Christ?

Question 11: What is “the hope that is in you”?

Question 12: What would cause someone to ask you about the hope that is in you?

Question 13: What attitude should you have while witnessing?

4. Strategy for Witnessing

Objective 3: List the strategies of witnessing you may use in different situations

Jesus came to seek and to save the lost. Since he lives within us, we can simply ask him to give us the courage to speak for him. Whenever you are alone with a person for a few minutes, you can assume that you are there by divine appointment to share the good news of God's love and forgiveness. Though you should always seek to bring those who are interested to a definite commitment to Christ, you should not feel discouraged when some refuse to receive him as their Savior. That is God's responsibility. It is your responsibility to tell them the good news with love and genuine concern.

We can set the following strategies according to the situation.

1. If it is difficult to have personal time, you can distribute tracks.
2. If you have 20-30 minutes of personal time, you can use Four Spiritual Laws, Bridge Analogy, Evangelization Explosion, and other tools for witnessing.
3. If you can meet on a regular basis (workplace, church, etc.), you can have a personal Bible study with Unit I of this workbook.

Question 14: Even though we use different strategies to reach others with the gospel, the central message of the gospel should be same. What was the central message of Paul's witness?
1 Corinthians 1:23-24

Question 15: Why is it important that we present Jesus Christ to people that are lost? John 14:6; Acts 4:12

Although it is effective under the right circumstances, to share our experience, witnessing is about presenting a person—Jesus Christ—not a plan or a theory.

Question 16: Read Acts 26:1-29 and summarize Paul's testimony using the three questions below. Then write your own testimony using the same questions as a guide.

- a) What was your life like before you met Christ?
- b) How did you meet him?
- c) How has Christ transformed your life?

5. Witnessing as a Way of Life

Objective 4: List some important points to witness by life

Objective 5: Be prepared to share your salvation testimony to others

Successful witnessing may be defined as simply taking the initiative to share Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit and leaving the results to God (2 Timothy 4:2; Colossians 1:28-29). Here are some important reminders as you step out in faith to communicate Jesus Christ to others in your ordinary life.

1. Be prepared. You have to be prepared for God to use you as he wants.
2. Pray in the Spirit. It is our responsibility to share Christ with others and to pray for people to come to Christ. God is the One who by his Spirit can produce faith in the hearts of men and women and change their lives. But we should not expect vague and superficial prayers to be answered. We should pray with an earnest love and desire for their salvation. Pray by mentioning their names individually and record when and how God answered your prayer.
3. Take the initiative. Regard the opportunities you have of meeting people as divine appointments. Consider the following:
 - a) Do not wait for people to come to you. Go to them with the good news of Christ. God has already commanded us to go and tell the good news to all.
 - b) We witness because it is the command of Christ but we should go further and make witnessing a regular part of our lives. As you come into contact with and meet people, witness to them. Show them your concern for them and naturally lead the conversation. The words Jesus said to the woman at the well (John 4:7) and what Philip said to the Ethiopian eunuch (Acts 8:30) are good examples.

4. Turn the conversation to Christ. Do not be too hasty! We need to show genuine interest in the person by listening to what he or she thinks or believes about the meaning and purpose of life. As we do this it opens the door to share about how Jesus gives meaning and purpose to our lives.
5. Expect results. When you witness, expect people to respond. We should not base our expectation on our technique or beliefs but place our confidence in his love, his power, and his promise.

Question 17: Think back through this lesson. Write down what you learned that is new. Also, note what applications you can make to your life.

A. Defining Being Filled with the Spirit

Objective 1: Explain what being filled with the Holy Spirit means
--

The Holy Spirit dwells in every believer. The Holy Spirit causes us to be “born again” and empowers us to live a Christ-centered life. We cannot, through our own efforts, lead a Christ-centered life. We must ask, trust, and depend on the Holy Spirit to lead and guide us through our journey as Christians. This is called the Spirit-filled life.

Question 1: Read John 14:16-17. Before Jesus left this earth what did he promise to the disciples?

Question 2: In John 14:18, Jesus says that he would not leave them as orphans but would come to them. What do you think this means in relation to the promise he made?

Question 3: In John 15:26, what does Jesus say about the ministry of the Holy Spirit?

Question 4: What explanation does Jesus give in John 16:14 regarding the Spirit’s work?

Question 5: Having answered the preceding questions, how would you summarize the primary ministry of the Holy Spirit?

The word “filled” actually means to be directed and empowered by the Spirit. Since the Holy Spirit came to glorify Christ (John 16:14) and is the Spirit of Christ (Romans 8:9), to be filled with the Spirit is to be filled with or abiding in Christ. To abide in Christ is to live in dependence upon him, recognizing that it is his life, his wisdom, his resources, his strength, and his ability operating through you, which enables you to live according to his will. Christ lives in us and expresses his life through us by the power of his Spirit.

Question 6: Ephesians 5:18 contrasts being filled with the Spirit to getting drunk with wine. What kind of state is to be filled with the Holy Spirit?

To be filled with the Spirit does not mean to be in a mystical state. Nor does it mean to be in an emotionally dry or highly intellectual state. The concept of the filling of the Holy Spirit from this verse stresses the abiding influence and power that the presence of the Spirit of Christ has in our lives and on our character.

B. Reasons to Be Filled with the Spirit

Objective 2: List some reasons why you need to be filled with the Holy Spirit

As long as we are in this world and in our flesh, we cannot keep from sinning. Even if we believe in Jesus Christ and have begun a new life, we are still able to fall into sinful behavior (1 John 1:8). That is why the apostle Paul cried out, “Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death?” (Romans 7:24)

Question 7: How does Galatians 5:17 describe this conflict?

A natural person can sometimes overcome this conflict with conscientious thoughts or ethical actions. However in our own power alone, we will fail spiritually. Our old selves cannot win this conflict because of our fleshly desires.

Question 8: Read Romans 8:9-10, 13-14. What do Christians have to do to win this conflict between the flesh and the Spirit?

Each person who claims to walk with Christ must be filled with the Holy Spirit continuously—this leads to a victorious life.

C. Results of Being Filled with the Spirit

Objective 3: Identify some expectations of being filled with the Holy Spirit

In order to live a victorious life, we must be filled with the Holy Spirit. We cannot overcome the power of Satan by ourselves. However through the power of the Holy Spirit we are able to overcome the power of Satan. We have already learned that the primary ministry of the Holy Spirit is to reveal Jesus to us. The Holy Spirit impacts our lives by showing us who Jesus is. As we focus on Jesus, we are able to become more like him.

Question 9: Find the image of Jesus from Galatians 5:22-23 by listing the fruit of the Spirit.

Through Jesus Christ, we can have victory over sin. Jesus himself lived a sinless life giving us the perfect example of how to live. It is important to build his character into our lives through the ministry of the Spirit so that we might live in a way that reflects Jesus.

Question 10: We are meant to feel the impossibility of living the victorious life in the strength of our flesh. When we try, we fail over and over. Recall a time when you failed to live up to God's standards; then record why you think you failed. What can you do next time to live victoriously?

D. Way of Being Filled with the Spirit

Objective 4: Describe how you can be filled with the Holy Spirit

Objective 5: Renew your mind to maintain the filling of the Holy Spirit

We have already learned that the filling of the Spirit emphasizes the abiding influence and power that his presence has in our lives and on our character. Nobody is able to change his or her character immediately. It takes time. As time goes by, our character should be transformed to that of Jesus. There is no single formula that can fill us with the Holy Spirit instantaneously. By having fellowship with the Holy Spirit, however, we can be gradually transformed into Jesus' image.

Question 11: Read 1 Corinthians 2:11-14. Write a brief summary of the relationship of the Spirit and a person's understanding of spiritual truth.

Question 12: Now turn to 2 Timothy 3:16-17. After asserting that the word is breathed out by God, Paul then says that the word has a specific purpose. What is it?

The Bible teaches us both about who God is and how we are to live a life that is pleasing to him. The word interacts with us, opening our eyes to see the wonder of the Savior, prompting us to obey him, convicting us when we do not, and guiding us to live a life that is pleasing to God. The word of God and the work of the Spirit are inseparable. The Spirit works in us and speaks to us through the word. Therefore we must have fellowship with the Holy Spirit through the word. The Holy Spirit illuminates Jesus and his character through the word. We are able to understand the way we should be through this fellowship. However simply understanding the way is not enough to change us.

Question 13: What are our two responsibilities that Jesus mentioned in John 13:17?

Question 14: What is James' encouragement in James 1:22?

- a) Live out the message
- b) Be courageous
- c) Do not be timid
- d) Love one another

After understanding his word, we need to apply it to our lives. In other words, we should obey through the guidance of the Holy Spirit. When we do this process (understand his way and apply it to our lives) continuously, we will be transformed into Jesus' image and be filled with the Holy Spirit continuously. As a result, we will live in a manner that is pleasing to God.

There are many ways which help us to be filled with the Spirit and our personal Quiet Time is one of them. During QT, we find biblical truths and try to apply them to our lives. We try to obey the Holy Spirit through QT. Hence QT can be a good way to be filled with the Holy Spirit and maintain it for a victorious life. Start QT and continue it!

Question 15: Think back through this lesson. Write down what you learned that is new. Also, note what applications you can make to your life.

- 4. Memorize 1 Corinthians 10:13 and James 1:14-15.
- 5. Have Quiet Time regularly.
- 6. Review the names of the books in the Old Testament, from Ecclesiastes to Malachi.

Even though Christians may live a Spirit-filled life, they cannot do away with sin while living in this world in their flesh (1 Corinthians 10:12). Because the devil prowls around like a roaring lion seeking someone to devour, we must be on our guard at all times. However we cannot live a victorious life by our own power. God can shield and protect us from temptations and sin. We need to accept that it is God who gives us victory, and to depend upon him, his truth, and his strength to overcome all things.

A. Understanding Temptation

- Objective 1: Explain the difference among test, trial, and temptation*
- Objective 2: Describe the key solution to temptation based on 1 Corinthians 10:13*
- Objective 3: Evaluate honestly the temptations which frequently overcome you*

Question 1: In the Bible there are three similar concepts. Summarize them.

- a) Trials (James 1:2-4)
- b) Temptations (James 1:13-14)
- c) Tests (Genesis 22:1)

Let us take some time now to study the subject of temptation. Christians can find a key solution to temptation in 1 Corinthians 10:13. Meditate on this verse for a few minutes and then answer the next several questions.

Question 2: According to 1 Corinthians 10:13, what kind of temptations overtake you?

Question 3: Who enables you to endure it when you are being tempted?

Question 4: Does God remove the temptation?

Question 5: What does God do for you?

Question 6: What are the things that keep us from falling into temptations?

a) Matthew 6:9, 13

b) Psalm 119:9, 11

c) 1 John 5:4-5

d) James 4:7

Let us continue to apply these verses to our life.

Question 7: Record your thoughts on the following: what temptation frequently overcomes you? From a biblical perspective, why do you think you are susceptible to this? Be as honest and open as possible. Awareness of the temptation is a step toward conquering it.

Question 8: Record your thoughts on how you think God helps us become victorious? What have you learned from the Bible on this issue? What is the road to victory?

B. Satan's Use of Temptation

Objective 4: List the three ways Satan attacks you, understand the strategies against the attacks, and use this information to live a victorious life

The ultimate source of all evil is Satan. But that does not mean that the devil always attacks us personally. Satan attacks us using every possible means including his direct involvement. We are attacked through three basic channels which Scripture calls the devil, the world, and the flesh. It is crucial, when you are being tempted, to determine what kind of temptation it is because each should be handled differently.

1. Attacks Us Directly

Scripture teaches that there is one personal supernatural spirit known as the devil or Satan, and there are many fallen angels known as the devil's angels, or demons. This devil attacks directly to shake our relationship with God. When you are tempted to deny God's goodness, God's word, and/or God's faithfulness, these are attacks directed at your God-awareness.

Question 9: How did Satan attack Judas Iscariot? Luke 22:3; John 13:2

How does one handle a direct demonic attack upon God-awareness? First of all, one needs to acknowledge that the devil exists, and then one has to resist the devil (James 4:7). Let us study the best ways to resist the devil. Christ gave us the perfect example of how to resist the devil.

Question 10: In Matthew 4:4, 7, 10, what did Jesus use to resist the devil?

Jesus responded with the sword of the Spirit—the word of God. This is the best way to resist the devil. If the devil tempts you to doubt your salvation, you may rebuke his lies with the truth that leads to eternal life (John 5:24; 1 John 5:13). Knowing and studying the Bible are so important, especially in dealing with temptations. That is why memorizing Scripture is also important. David said, “I have stored up your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you.” (Psalm 119:11) The more you study and master the word, the more you will be prepared to effectively deal with this type of temptation.

2. Through the World

Satan not only attacks us directly, but also indirectly through the world. The kind of world we are talking about is “the world” God mentioned in 1 John 2:15-16 and “this world” mentioned in Romans 12:2. This kind of world refers to the world of unsaved people and the society, culture, and value systems they have established. The subtlest kinds of temptations are from this channel.

Question 11: The world tempts us in what three areas? What are specific examples of these? 1 John 2:16

An example: A young couple is very zealous for the Lord and then suddenly stops attending church. They purchased a new home and are now so busy decorating it that they have no time for God. They actually love the house more than they love God. That is sin and idolatry! The most difficult type of temptation comes from the world.

How does one handle this type of temptation? Read Matthew 6:19-34. Probably this type of temptation—the world attacking the soul—will be the most prominent over the period of your life span. This is particularly true in our materialistic society. Suppose as a woman, you find yourself enamored with the latest fashions. It becomes an inordinate passion that is always on your mind. Clothes! Clothes! Clothes! Or a man gets intense car fever. Cars! Cars! Cars! If you begin to let your love for God grow cold, then the world will suck you into its vacuum. These kinds of temptations cannot be overcome by escaping (John 17:15). When you are tempted by the world, check your relationship with the Lord rather than fighting back. That is, examine your devotional life.

Question 12: Think about each area of your devotional life.

a) Quiet Time:

b) Prayer:

When you get back to your devotional life and renew your love for God, you will not love this world. Then, the satanic attack through this world loses its power.

3. Through the Desires of Our Flesh

Satan attacks through the basic desires of the flesh that everyone has. If the temptation through the world is an attack from the outside of our body, the temptation of the desire of the flesh is an attack from the inside of our body. The body or flesh, which is created by God, is not evil in itself. Therefore biological desires are not evil either. However some temptations are directed right at the biological desires of the body such as sex or eating. A Christian is constantly tempted to misuse and misdirect these biological desires that God has given each person.

Question 13: Read 2 Samuel 11:1-4. This example shows how David's desires of the body attacked. While David failed, Joseph overcame. Read the story of Joseph in Genesis 39. What are the differences?

Think about things to avoid in order to overcome this kind of temptation.

Sexual desires are a big temptation in our culture. Many people, especially young people, are constantly bombarded and tempted with sexual thoughts. It is important that we strive to avoid such temptations.

Question 14: Look at 2 Timothy 2:22. How does Paul command Timothy to handle youthful desires?

Here is a summary of how Christians can handle the different attacks of the devil:

Its Source	Its Characteristic	Strategy
Devil	Attack on God-awareness	Resist with the word
World	Attack from the outside	Examine the devotional life
Flesh	Attack from the inside (desires)	Flee

Question 15: Think back through this lesson. Write down what you learned that is new. Also, note what applications you can make to your life.

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- 1. Describe the meaning of obedience
- 2. Understand the basic attitude of obedience toward the Lord
- 3. Notice the importance of obedience to the Lord in your life
- 4. Explain the relationship between obedience and suffering
- 5. List some authorities you should obey

- 2. Read Colossians.
- 3. Study this lesson.
- 4. Memorize Romans 12:1 and Luke 9:23.
- 5. Have Quiet Time regularly.

The tragedy of the modern church is that there are many who are called to faith, but few who are called to obedience. Faith that perseveres against the temptations of Satan through a Spirit-filled life is very precious. A willingness to follow and obey Jesus is needed for Christians to keep their faith actively working for God. To do his work, it is important first to follow him.

Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. (Matthew 4:19)

Following Jesus means that I accept his plans and perfect will. It also means I need to give my life unconditionally to him and obey him.

A. Meaning of Obedience and Basic Attitude

Objective 1: Describe the meaning of obedience

Objective 2: Understand the basic attitude of obedience toward the Lord Question 1: Read Luke 5:1-11. How did Peter show his obedience to Jesus?

v 5

A decision to obey Christ can greatly impact our future. By obeying, Peter came to know Jesus and later became the head disciple. When we obey him in the small things that occur in our lives, our lives will be transformed more to his likeness.

Question 2: What attitudes should Christians have in order to completely obey Christ?

a) Toward Jesus (Matthew 28:18)

b) Toward oneself (Romans 12:1)

c) Toward the relationship between oneself and Jesus
(Luke 9:23)

We need to know God and acknowledge his authority in order to lead a life of obedience. We are called to say “no” to our selfish desires and attitude and “yes” to the will of Christ. We are called to dedicate our lives to Christ and to offer our bodies as living sacrifices to him.

Question 3: Meditate on Romans 12:1. Paul’s exhortation to this church is based on all of his previous teachings up through chapter 11. This teaching includes God’s gracious salvation from the penalty of sin plus provision for victory over sin after salvation—even the fullness of salvation that will still come to Israel when God fulfills his promises! Paul calls this directive in Romans 12:1 to present our bodies as a holy sacrifice to God our “acceptable service.” Considering all the wonderful mercies that God has shown to you through Jesus Christ, record your response to this command to offer your body to the Lord daily as a living sacrifice, including any and all reservations you might feel.

When people go up in a balloon, they take bags of sand as weights. When they want to go higher, they throw some of those bags overboard. The more they throw out, the higher they go. Our Christian walk is the same. The more of the things of the flesh, the world, and the devil we throw overboard, the higher we will rise in the heights of spiritual blessings.

B. Areas and Objects of Obedience

- Objective 3: Notice the importance of obedience to the Lord in your life*
- Objective 4: Explain the relationship between obedience and suffering*
- Objective 5: List some authorities you should obey*

Question 4: What areas of their lives should the disciples of Christ deny in order to follow Jesus? Find three areas from Luke 14:25-27, 33.

Question 5: From the previous question, think and record your thoughts of areas in your life that you may be struggling to give up to follow Christ. Then evaluate why these areas are more difficult to give up than others. What about them is attractive to you?

Obedying Christ in the area of physical possessions is a very important part of obedience in a Christian's life. When Jesus commanded the rich young man to sell all of his possessions and give them to the poor, Jesus was not asking him to become poor, but was looking for complete obedience (Mark 10:17-22). Especially in a world obsessed with materialism, there is no better scale for measuring our degree of obedience than our attitude towards material things. Christians' obedience in this area is not only shown by giving and helping the poor, but is more deeply related to what attitude they have toward material possessions. Christians cannot be regarded as totally obedient in this area if they spend their money excessively for themselves while not helping the less fortunate.

Obedience is not only keeping his words and denying oneself. We must obey him in all areas of our lives even while suffering is present in our lives.

Question 6: How does God work in our lives? How should obedient Christians behave because of this?

a) Ecclesiastes 7:14

b) Job 2:10

c) Genesis 50:20

Question 7: What attitude should obedient Christians have when confronted by suffering?

- a) Philippians 1:29
- b) Romans 8:17-18
- c) Mark 10:32-34
- d) John 12:24

Obedient death is necessary for Christians to bear fruit (Mark 8:34-36). This death means the death of our self-esteem, privilege, prejudice, ambitions, and our comfort. The absolute authority for obedience for Christians is, of course, Jesus Christ. However as people living within a family, a church, and a community, Christians have other authorities to obey.

Question 8: Read the following verses to find the authorities which Christians need to obey:

- a) Ephesians 5:22, 25; 6:1
- b) 1 Peter 5:5
- c) Colossians 3:22
- d) Romans 13:1

But obedience to these authorities should not be absolute. There are some instances when we have to disobey them in order to obey Jesus (Acts 4:19).

C. Examples of Obedience

Objective 6: Encourage/warn other believers by using biblical examples of obedient and disobedient people

One role model of obedience from the Bible is Abraham.

Question 9: Read Genesis 12:1-4 (Hebrews 11:8) and Genesis 22:1-3, 9-12. How did Abraham obey God?

Question 10: In Genesis 22:17-18, what was the promise God gave Abraham when he gave his son in obedience?

One example of disobedience in the Bible is found in 1 Samuel 15:18-23. King Saul gave an excuse and chose to sacrifice in his own way instead of obeying.

Question 11: What was Samuel's reaction to Saul's disobedience?

Question 12: To what did Samuel compare rebellion and presumption?

Question 13: What was the result of Saul's disobedience?

There are examples of both disobedience and obedience that changed the history of the world. Read Romans 5:19 and answer the following questions:

Question 14: How did Adam disobey and what was the consequence of that disobedience?

Question 15: How did Christ obey and what was the consequence of that obedience?

Question 16: According to Hebrews 5:8-9, how does the obedience of Christ affect Christians?

- a) He became our source of eternal salvation
- b) He became our example to follow
- c) His obedience did not affect Christians
- d) He had no obedience for he was already perfect

A life of obedience is, in itself, a blessing for Christians. Jesus promised several things to those who obey him.

Question 17: What are the two results of obeying God's truth? 1 Peter 1:22

Question 18: What should we do to receive an answer to our prayer?
1 John 3:22

Question 19: The Holy Spirit has to be with the Christians for them to do Christ's work. Who can receive the Holy Spirit? Acts 5:32

Question 20: What blessings are reserved for obedient Christians?

- a) John 15:10
- b) John 15:14
- c) John 14:23
- d) 1 John 2:5

An obedient Christian has:

A mind through which Christ thinks

A life through which Christ shows

A voice through which Christ speaks

A hand through which Christ helps

Question 21: Think back through this lesson. Write down what you learned that is new. Also, note what applications you can make to your life.

- 3. Study this lesson.
- 4. Memorize 1 Corinthians 3:9; 1 Peter 2:9-10.
- 5. Have Quiet Time regularly.
- 6. Be ready to take the final exam.
- 7. Write a testimony about this training program.

Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. (Matthew 4:19)

To do the works of Jesus Christ, we must have a deeper fellowship with him and follow him. The training we have received so far shows its fruit in characteristic development and in the Lord's ministry. In this lesson we will study about the ministry.

There are still many people in churches who think they are living a Christian life by just listening to sermons from worship services. They have this passive attitude toward their life of faith because they have not been trained properly as Jesus' disciples. When believers are trained, their attitude becomes more active. Therefore the fruit of training will result in the ministry for the Lord.

If the Reformation of the sixteenth century gave the Bible back to the church members, the spiritual reformation that is to come will return ministry to the church members. Francis Abris said the following:

If we have been baptized, we are ministers whether we have been ordained as priests or not.

In this lesson we will look at five important elements to help the believers better understand their role in ministry. We will examine a biblical view of (1) the church, (2) the believers, (3) the gifts of God, (4) training, and (5) the world. An understanding of these five elements will greatly assist believers to be spiritually effective in ministry.

A. Biblical View of the Church

Objective 1: Describe the biblical basis of the church with a couple of supporting verses

The most challenging fact to Christians is not that I am to do something for the church but that I constitute the church. (F. C. Mather)

In describing the relationship between the believers and the church, it is incorrect to say that the believers are “in” the church. It is equally wrong to say that the believers work “for” the church. Also, it is not biblical to say that believers work “in” the church.

Question 1: What is the biblical expression describing the relationship between the believers and the church? Ephesians 2:20-22

Believers themselves “are” the church. So in order to know the believers’ ministry, it is necessary to know the ministry of the church. The two elements that make the church are service and fellowship. The church needs to carry out the ministries that Jesus did while he was on the earth in order to function as the body of Christ.

Question 2: Summarize the ministry of Jesus from Matthew 4:23. How is each related to the commission given to the church?

- a) _____ (Teaching, training, and spiritual arming)
- b) _____ (Spreading the gospel, foreign mission)
- c) _____ (Social service, participation in world)

All ministries should begin at the church which represents the body of Christ. Ministry should be conducted by individual members for individuals and to individuals, and should be transmitted to those outside the church as well. Therefore the church must carry out these three ministries—teaching, preaching, and healing—when members gather together. Individuals must carry out these duties in the world as they are dispersed in the world.

B. Biblical View of the Believers

Objective 2: Explain the importance of believers to fulfilling the commission of Jesus Christ

We often hear people saying, “But I am only a member of this church.” This might sound very humble, but they have not properly understood the commission of Jesus. The Bible tells us that every Christian is a minister. Church members are not the objects of ministry, as is often understood, but are the subjects of church ministry.

What is Christian ministry? For the next four questions, fill in the blanks with appropriate words.

Question 3: Christians are not a line on a fishing rod but should become _____ of men (Matthew 4:19).

Question 4: Christians are not tasteless salt but _____ salt (Matthew 5:13).

Question 5: Christians are not a dying flame but _____ (Matthew 5:14).

Question 6: Christians are not well functioning machinery but _____ (Matthew 9:38).

Churches cannot spread the gospel because they are too separated from their neighbors and are introverted. Church is outside the world, contrary to what the Bible wants. The Bible teaches us that Christians should be inside the world. As Jesus, the head of the church, did, the church should be incarnate in the ignorant, filthy, and sinful cities and towns in which they exist. (Donald McGavran)

Question 7: After meditating on these quotations, record your thoughts on how God wants you to interact with your community and the world.

Question 8: Write down the names given to Christians in 1 Peter 2:4, 5, 9, 10, and think about their meanings.

b)

e)

C. Biblical View of the Gifts of God

Objective 3: List the spiritual gifts from the Bible and know what gifts you have

God commands us to do his ministry, but he also gives us the gifts that we need in order to carry out his ministry. We should neither be proud of them as if they were ours, nor should we fail to use them. Gifts are freely given by God for his ministry. Gifts are to be used for the glory of God.

Question 9: There are passages about gifts in Romans 12:6-8, 1 Corinthians 12:8-11, and Ephesians 4:11. Among these, the seven gifts mentioned in Romans are those that are easily seen in our everyday life. Explain each gift briefly.

b)

g)

Question 10: It is important to realize that each of us has been given a distinct gift(s) to use and that we are to be using that gift(s) accordingly. Record your thoughts on what gift(s) you may have. How can you find a way to practice your gift to edify others?

D. Biblical View of Training

Objective 4: Indicate what training is necessary to be a good worker for the Lord

Gifts are essential to do the ministry of God. But for that gift to bear fruit, training is needed. It is wrong for a church to give someone an important role without training that person first. Those who desire to serve God should make necessary preparations. Training that is in line with the gift becomes an appropriate preparation for the church ministry.

Two inherent problems that our churches have are (1) there are not many pastors who want to train the believers and (2) there are few believers who desire to receive training. Some people think training is difficult and still others think that it is unnecessary. However the training for believers is imperative for a church to become a fully functioning, spiritually effective church.

Question 11: How did Jesus train his disciples (Mark 3:13-15)? How can this be applied to the church today?

- a) Calling and appointing:
- b) Making them be with him:
- c) Sending them out to preach:

There are several fields in which believers should be trained.

1. Devotional: Spending time with God, memorizing verses, etc.
2. Evangelism: Personal evangelism, evangelical Bible study, etc.
3. Encouragement: Building up and edification
4. Counseling: Family, marriage, adolescent, etc.

Consider the following suggestions for an effective training.

1. Never lose the commission as a worker
2. Look for people who are ministering with similar gifts
3. Read and study the Bible and other books which are necessary for ministry
4. Think of ways of using the gifts you have received
5. Start humbly even though you might have much experience in church life

6. Join a group that will challenge you in your dedication

Question 12: Review the two lists. Write and explain how you will further your development in these areas.

E. Biblical View of the World

Objective 5: Find what you can do in this world, as a disciple of Jesus, to fulfill his commission

For trained believers to minister, they need to understand their field of ministry. Many Christians limit the scope of ministry to inside the church. But the field of our ministry is this world. The world in which we live and work is where we should minister. Many believers limit their field to the region or country they belong to. But our scope of ministry is to the end of the earth (Acts 1:8). By broadening our vision of the world, it helps us to have a greater sense of God's heart for the whole world.

Question 13: What does Jesus want to do with his disciples? John 17:18; 20:21

Question 14: In Acts 8:4, how did many of the believers participate in the ministry?

Question 15: Where did Paul spread the gospel? Acts 17:17

The gospel must be spread to all regions of the world, and the name of Jesus must be heralded. The everyday work we do during weekdays is also an act of worship to God. Our work becomes a living worship when we do everything within a right relationship with God.

Question 16: What promise did Jesus make with his disciples as he left them for heaven? Acts 1:8

Question 17: What did the Holy Spirit ask for Paul and Barnabas? Acts 13:2-3

The gospel should be preached to every region of the world. Believers who regard the whole world as their parish are needed, especially as the world is increasingly becoming a single community.

Question 18: Think back through this lesson. Write down what you learned that is new. Also, note what applications you can make to your life.
